

Blessings List

March 22nd, 2026

Prayers for my best friend carrying her miracle baby! May they continue to grow and become stronger every single day together and add a new addition to their family.

He takes me with open hands always. His love never changes.

Christians who love, care for and serve those in need.

Prayers of strength and courage as my Dad awaits his surgery.

Lord, Thank you for your forgiveness and daily mercies. Thank you that Mom is enjoying her time in San Antonio with Lupe. Thank you for the renewed spirit of thankfulness, gratitude in my life. Lord, continue to guide those who are not in relationship with your children. Bless Nia, Anabella, Belinda, Rich and all who are in need of healing. Comfort Yvonne and all who have experienced hurt and loss. Please bless the sick, tired, lonely and weak.

Blessed to know that some without faith are now turning to Him and learning about the love and forgiveness only He can give.

Blessed to be able to have a sick day when I need it...
