I think I will be able to pay my Tax

My spring break was wonderful. I achieved the new unthinkable for me (at least 3 years ago, anyway). Last Monday, in my 2nd attempt, I was able to ascend to the top of Guadalupe Peak, the highest point in Texas. The trail (in Guadalupe Mountains National Park) is 8.4 miles round trip with 3,000 feet of elevation difference between trailhead and peak. A bucket list accomplishment for me!

Lessons about issues I cannot control and the knowledge of when to let go.

Had a restful spring break.

God blessed me with a time to be sick and a time to be well. I'm feeling sooooo much better!

Blessed with a joyous spirit.

even younger precious child)

Blessed by co-workers rescuing the day after being stuck in Dallas for a week!
