

BLESSINGS LIST

October
29th, 2023

Lovely time with family.

I am thankful for being pushed out of my comfort zone yesterday. I had fun and felt myself being happy again.

God continues to show up for us emotionally, financially in every way, but mainly provides me with the peace I need.

Generous friends.

Blessed with a beautiful week of weather.

The Brown Middle School orchestra had their first school orchestra concert with a new director for the first time in over 30 years, and it was a great success.

Opportunity to visit with old friends.

Joy of preparing for local wedding with loved ones

Some rain, flowers, greening

Thank you God for my family

Thankful that after I prayed out loud to God he helped me find what I needed.

This week God has blessed me
with many things, I had a soccer tournament and
although my team and I lost,
nobody got hurt and we all know the Lord has everything planned out.

Artistic capabilities that help keep me sane.

Thank you Father for the gift of organization and a time of renewal. Thank you for the gift of rest for Lisa, myself and all your children.

Strength and energy for work
