Patience

Thank You God for your protection

I am once again grateful for God's enduring love.

Dropped off our son at College Station and helped him settle into his new home for the school year.

Thank You Lord for a clear mind from distractions these last couple weeks.

New Opportunities for learning and creativity

Listeners

Thank you for the abundance of energy these last couple of days.

I got to spend time with my children

Seeing the stars in a dark place

Thank you Father for everything, I thank you that Ruby the baby are doing well. Thank you for your love, grace, for friends and provision of all. Please bless my family, please continue to heal Carmen.
